CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

Roy Harold Carraway, 18, Killed In Car

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at 10:00 a.m. at the First Methodist Church in Pahokee for Roy Harold Carraway, 18, of Pahokee who was killed early Sunday when the auto he was riding in struck a utility pole in Miami.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Carraway; three brothers, David, Billy Gale and Kenneth Allen, all of Pahokee; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Speights of Columbia, Mississippi and his paternal grandmother, Mrs. W. N. Carraway of Bassfield, Mississippi.

Pall bearers were Dennis Milliron, Jimmy Holman, Mike Fletcher, Alan Hitchcock, Cliff Simmonds and Johnny Wade.

Wetherington Funeral Home of Pahokee was in charge of local arrangements with burial at Fort Mayaca Cemetery.

St. Patrick Day Ball Is Big Success

The ballroom of the Pahokee Elks Club, gaily decorated with green and white streamers, balls and shamrocks, was under the spell of the leprechauns on Saturday night as guests enjoyed dancing to the music of Joe Sigmund's Orchestra at the St. Patrick's Day Ball.

The drawing prize, a Seltan Hotray, was won by Mrs. Marjorie Laks, Auxiliary president.

Door prizes were won by Dr. R. L. Hutton, L. C. McClelland, Ronnie Crosby, Frank Campanile, Kenneth McIntosh, Foy Sims, Hilton Jones, Frank Brady, Frank Minville, Tom Carbonelle, Dr. G. B. Walker, Leonard Dobrow, R. O. Crosby, Billy Cook, William Lowe and Billy Turberville.

Donors of door prizes included Royal's Department Stores, Thriftway Super Market, A & P Food Store, Pahokee Coca Cola Bottling Shop, Roadside Package Store, Canal Point Pharmacy, Pahokee Army Store, Pahokee Flower Shop, Dave's Palm Beach Shop and Circle S Pharmacy, Inc.

The Pink Ladies sincerely thank those who purchased tickets; the donors of the door prizes and all others who assisted in any way in this, their first major fund-raising project, proceeds of which go toward the purchase of an Addressograph and Charger Plate for the Everglades Memorial Hospital.

Anyone who still has ticket money outstanding or who was not contacted for the purchase of a ticket and wishes to contribute to this worthwhile project is asked to contact Mrs. Kenneth McIntosh, general chairman of the benefit ball, or any of the Pink Ladies. Your interest in the volunteer work of the Pink Ladies and support of their fund-raising activities will always be appreciated and warmly welcomed.

Interim Pastor Resigns Here

Rev. B. G. Brown, interim pastor of the Canal Point Baptist Church, resigned effective Sunday, March 26. He has accepted a pastorate at a church in Orlando.

Youth Award Given Wayne Burdeshaw

Wayne Burdeshaw was presented with the first annual W. A. (Pop) Reynolds Youth Service Award on Tuesday night at the Pahokee Lions Club Ladies Night program.

Dr. Robert L. Hutton, president of the Lions Club, presented the plaque to Mr. Burdeshaw. He will receive a small award and his name will be engraved on a permanent plaque in the Lions Club building.

Last year, after Pop Reynolds' death, the Pahokee Lions Club decided to make an annual award in his honor to a citizen in the community for their work with the young people of the area. Mr. Reynolds was well known as "the father of Boy Scouting in the Glades."

Mr. Burdeshaw, the recipient of the award was born in Pahokee and has been active in youth activities for a number of years. He served as cub master for Pack No. 623 of the Cub Scouts and is presently acting as leader of the Royal Ambassadors of the Pahokee First Baptist Church.

Jack Faircloth, former mayor of West Palm Beach and a businessman there, was the guest speaker at the Ladies Night program.

Group Named Make Plans New Library

The Pahokee City Council appointed a five-member committee on Monday night to make plans for the proposed construction of the new municipal library, a gift to the area from the U. S. Sugar Corporation in Clewiston.

Harry T. Vaughn, Sr., president of the sugar company, announced on January 30 that a municipal facility would be constructed. The sugar company has indicated they plan to spend approximately $80,000 on the project.

Members of the committee that was appointed Monday are Mayor Duncan Padgett, L. L. Shirley, Rupert Mock, Mrs. E. D. Sims and Mrs. O. H. Sheppard.

The purpose of the committee will be to contact architects interested in drawing plans for the new building which will serve the Canal Point and Bryant areas as well as Pahokee.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The March meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Everglades Memorial Hospital will be held in the dining room of the hospital Tuesday at 8:00 p.m., with president, Marjorie Laks presiding. A good attendance of Pink Ladies will be appreciated.

Campaign Is Really Quiet, Election Tues.

The quietest election campaign in many years in Palm Beach county will come to a close next Monday night as candidates approach the general election on Tuesday, March 28.

Three state senators will be chosen from the new senatorial district of Lee, Hendry, Glades and Palm Beach county. Six state representatives will be chosen from the new district of Martin and Palm Beach counties.

William E. Owens, Democrat.

New State Park Work Delayed In Pahokee

Mayor Duncan Padgett announced on Tuesday of this week that there would be a delay in the construction of the Pahokee State Park as the cabinet had not signed the contract with the prime contractor on Monday.

N. E. Miller, director of the State Board of Parks and Historical Monuments, had announced recently that the low bid for the park was by T. G. Brown Construction Company of Lake Clarke Shores for $135,000.

The facilities will extend from the north boundary of the Boy Scout State to the north boundary of the Glades Airport. When it is completed, the park will be open from 6 a.m. until 9 p.m. with a small charge for the use of the camping and boating facilities.

Eastern Star Officers Installed For New Year

The new officers of the Order of Eastern Star, Pahokee Chapter 184, were installed on Saturday, March 18, in the Masonic Lodge building in Pahokee. The installing officer was Mrs. Judy Sapp.

Mrs. Essie Robison, installing marshal; Mrs. Grace Graham, installing organist; and Mrs. Eunice Hughes, installing chaplain.

Mrs. Marie Hughes was installed as the new Worthy Matron. Others installed were Worthy Patron, J. G. Weeks; associate worthy matron, Mrs. Sarah Moon; associate worthy patron, Franklin Moon; secretary, Jennie McKinstry; treasurer, Jessie Barnes; conductress, Minnie Lee Bell; associate conductress, Elaine Weeks; chaplain, Grace Graham; marshal, Mary Lee Adams and organist, Beulah George.

Adah, Annette Martin; Ruth, Ruth Kahler; Esther, Mattie Thompson; Martha, Lillian Funderburk; Electa, Adaline Wooten; Warder, Fay Ursy and Sentinel, Frank Bell.

Worthy Matron Hughes chose as her symbols an open Bible and lighted candles; her scripture, "Now Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Hebrews 11:1; her motto, "Keep looking up. He's always looking down"; her colors, blue, green and gold; her song, her flowers, all seasonal flowers. "Look for the Silver Lining" and The new officers dedicated their term of office to their families and to the Order of Rainbow for Girls, No. 16.

Following the installation of officers, a short welcome address was given by outgoing Worthy Matron, Bernice Sheppard. The Misses Pam and Ralena Ursy sang the Worthy Matron's song following the installation services and the address.

After the introduction of guests, the presentation of the jewels by the outgoing worthy matron and worthy patron was held. Many gifts and courtesies were presented to the East and among one of the nicest courtesies received was an engraved briefcase that was given to the new Worthy Matron by the Pahokee Chapter of the Rainbow Girls.

A program was presented by Sarah Moon, associate worthy matron, with a beautiful arm bouquet of carnations in the Worthy Matron's colors of blue, green and gold. The Worthy Matron's closing ode, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You" was sung by Miss Reba Browne of Belle Glade.

Refreshments were served afterwards by Mrs. Sarah Moon and her assistants in the hall decorated in blue, green and gold. In the East, under the pedestal, was a styrofoam open Bible and styrofoam candles.

Among those who attended from out-of-town were Worthy Matron, Mrs. Helen Dickey of Clewiston; Worthy Patron and Worthy Matron, Mr. and Mrs. Edgie Johnson of Belle Glade; Mrs. Jessie Hughes, the Worthy Matron's mother-in-law from Pelican Lake; Mrs. Lurlean Menote, Mrs. Inez Copeland and Mrs. Agnes Sikes, all of Jacksonville, Mrs. Hughes' cousins.

Joint Funeral Is Held For Martin Bros.

Joint funeral services were held yesterday (Thursday) morning at 10:30 a.m. at the Church of God on Barfield Highway with Rev. H. E. Boyette officiating for Herman Martin, 31, and Marvin Martin, 25, who were killed in an automobile accident on Saturday night near Brandon.

They are survived by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Canal Point; five brothers, Eugene, Troy, Ralford and Kenny, all of Canal Point, and Donnie, U. S. Army in Viet Nam; and two sisters, Mrs. Ann Mills and Miss Sylvia Martin, both of Canal Point.

Herman is also survived by his wife, Nettie; one son, Herman Wayne, 8; and two daughters, Diane, 12, and Cheryl, 12, 5.

Burial was at Port Mayaca Cemetery under the direction of Wetherington Funeral Home.

Joint Easter Service In Pahokee Sunday

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held on the lawn of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee, Sunday, March 26, at 6:15. The Choir of the First Methodist Church of Pahokee will bring the special music and Rev. Edward Norton, Pastor of the Canal Point Methodist Church will deliver the message.

BPW Club Met Tuesday Eve. In Canal Point

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Pahokee met on Tuesday evening in the Community Building in Canal Point. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Mildred Lavender, Mrs. Dorothy Fletcher and Miss Billie Hand.

Mrs. Alys Okie was in charge of the program on World Affairs. Guest speaker at the meeting was L. P. Parsons, superintendent of the Glades Correctional Institution near Belle Glade.

Local Garden Club Plans Sebring Trip

The monthly meeting of the Canal Point Garden Club was held at the Community Center on Thursday, March 16. Members present answered the roll call by giving names of poisonous plants in her garden, how they affected the person coming in contact and what first aid could be rendered.

The program was on conservation of Florida plants protected by law. A list of these plants was given each member and a booklet, "Florida's List of Protected Plants in Words and Pictures," prepared by the Fort Lauderdale Garden Club, was passed around so that each member could view how the plants appeared in nature and their description. A discussion followed.

An invitation has been extended by the Pahokee Garden Club to join them in a field trip to Highlands Hammock, near Sebring, on April 18. Several members are expected to attend.

Mrs. Leo P. Hebert will be a delegate to the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs, Inc., 41st annual state convention April 3, 4, and 5, to be held in Jacksonville, Florida.

Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Glenn Powell with Mrs. A. Moron and Mrs. Floyd Erickson as cohostesses. Arrangements of pastries, sweet peas and hibiscus were on all the tables which gave each member a feeling that Spring had arrived.

1967 Tags Go On Sale Apr. 3 Through May 20

Mrs. Edwina Young, head of the Tag Office at the Glades Office Building in Belle Glade, announced that this Friday, March 24, is the last day that auto tags may be reserved. The price for reserved tags is $1.00 more than regular tag prices. Anyone interested in reserving a tag number for 1967 should do so by Friday afternoon at 5:00 p.m.

New 1967 tags will go on sale at the Glades Office Building Tag Office on Monday, April 3, and will be sold through Saturday, May 20. Prices for the 1967 tags which will be black with white lettering, are: D tags, $14.00; regular tags, $22.22; W tags, $30.34 and WW tags $38.47.

Remember, anyone wishing to reserve a 1967 tag number should go to the Tag Office this week to do so, as Friday, March 24, is the last day to reserve tags for 1967.

Air Force Is Looking For Nurses

It takes determination and hard work to become a Registered Nurse. But, this is true of other career achievements, too. The real test of the worth of these years of hard work and study is how well they are put to use. You'll enjoy the pride and prestige of your country as a United States Air Force Nurse.

You'll find that the pay is good and you'll have the chance to travel—all over the free world—wherever Air Force hospitals are located. In addition, Air Force nurses may apply for specialized training in such nursing specialties as obstetrics and anesthesiology. They are also eligible for graduate training at Air Force expense.

Air Force nurses lead an active and varied social life. Wherever they're stationed extensive recreational and sports facilities will be available.

If you are a Registered Nurse, you may be eligible for appointment to the Air Force Nurse Corps. See the Air Force recruiter, Sgt. Joe Bloxom, today. He may be contacted at 3238 South Dixie in West Palm Beach or at the Selective Service office in Belle Glade each Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. and each Thursday at 10:00 a.m.

2,606 Persons On Welfare February

Rev. Paul Cassen, Chairman of District 10 Welfare Board of the State Department of Public Welfare reported that during the month of February in Palm Beach County a total of 2,606 persons received Old Age Assistance in the amount of $122,802. 125 persons received Aid to the Blind in the amount of $7,754. 1507 families received Aid to Families with Dependent Children in the amount of $93,715 and 701 persons received $40,701 in Aid to the Disabled.

In addition, 382 children received service during the month, 231 of whom were in foster homes. The total state and local cost for direct child care was $12,438.71.

There were 10 adoption petitions studied for the Circuit Court. These are children placed in homes in dependent of service through a licensed child placing agency and the Welfare Board is responsible according to law to make these reports to the court.

Palm Beach County is represented on the District 10 Welfare Board by Mr. J. F. Thomas of West Palm Beach, Mr. J. T. McMurrain of Delray Beach, Mrs. Marion Bleech of Pahokee and Mrs. Lou Ann Marsh of Boynton Beach.

Taylor Circle Met Monday At Church.

The Alberta Taylor Circle of the Canal Point Baptist Church met Monday night in the Educational Building with Mrs. Arnold Scruggs as hostess. Mrs. Scruggs gave the devotional and Mrs. J. H. Strayer, prayer chairman, gave the call to prayer.

For the calendar of prayer, Mrs. Strayer had an Easter egg with the name of a missionary on each egg and reminded the members to pray for them the rest of the month.

Mrs. Guy Thompson was in charge of the program, "Are Home Missions Needed?" Taking part on the program with Mrs. Thompson were Mrs. Paul Maynor, Mrs. Cecil Hall and Mrs. J. H. Strayer.

During the business session, presided over by Mrs. Cecil Hall, circle chairman, the circle voted to buy WMU manuals and yearbooks and study them. Mrs. Mildard Huff, community missions chairman, encouraged the visitation for the church for the month. Mrs. Arnold Scruggs, social chairman, secured homes for the preachers to be fey in on Sundays.

Mrs. Maynor was asked to contact the Baptist Children's Home in Lakeview for a child to be sponsored by the circle. Mrs. Charles Maxson closed the meeting with prayer.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Paul Maynor.

Miriam Circle Meets Bowe Home

Mrs. Bruce Bowe, circle chairman, was hostess to the Miriam Circle of the Pahokee First Methodist Church on Monday. The circle voted to keep their same officers for the coming year.

Officers training day was announced to be held at the First Methodist Church in Pahokee on Thursday, May 18. Mrs. Ruth Meredith and Mrs. Glenn Brower were in charge of remembering the shut-ins at Easter.

The program was given by Mrs. Brower. She gave devotionals on "Love" and read an article from the Reader's Digest, "Who's God Is Dead." The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Glenn Brower's home on Monday, April 17.

Easter Egg Hunt For Methodists

The Canal Point Methodist Church will hold their annual Easter egg hunt on Saturday, March 25, beginning at 2:30 p. m. at the Community Building.

The Easter egg hunt is for all children from the nursery age through the junior department. Each child is requested to bring three eggs to the hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bordeaux plan to spend the Easter holidays with their granddaughter, Mrs. Ray Ulmer, Jr., and Mr. Ulmer, in Clearwater.

The Lottie Moon Circle of the Pahokee First Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Adaline Wroten with 10 members present. Mrs. L. M. Mullis gave the call to prayer.

Mrs. Joe Thompson presented the last half of the mission study book, "Forest Trails to Urban Jungles." The community missions project for April will be tray cards for the patients at Everglades Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. F. G. Gillis reported that she had sent linens and towels to the Dunkin Memorial Camp. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Stevens, circle chairman, on Tuesday, April 18.

Angel Home Is Scene Circle Meet

Mrs. Charles Angel was hostess to the Faye Taylor Circle of the Pahokee First Baptist WMU on Tuesday night with Mrs. Milton Douglas, chairman, presiding at the business meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Guthrie gave the call to prayer and Mrs. Seth Roberts read a letter from Tammy, the child sponsored by the circle at the Baptist Children's Home in Lakeview. Top Value stamps and S & H Green stamps were collected for the purchase of the airplane for the Brazilian missionary.

Community missions project for the month of April for the circle will be clothes for the needy families. The last half of the mission study book, "Forest Trails to Urban Jungles" was presented as the program.

There were 12 members and one guest, Mrs. Paul Watson, present at the meeting. "The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. M. M. Andrews.

Photographers Day At Passion Play

LAKE WALES (Special)—Because the public may not take pictures during regular performances of the Black Hills Passion Play, a photographers' day has been set for March 29 in the Lake Wales Amphitheatre.

Photographs may be taken immediately following the last matinee. The matinee starts at 3:00 p. m. Pictures may then be taken at 5:15 p. m. while there is still sunlight from a western angle. The stage faces north.

Photographers also may get closer to their subjects this year. In the past they were required to remain in the seating area. This year they may shoot from the footlights.

The Passion Play, which currently is in its 15th season, runs through April 16. Regular performances are at 7:30 p. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, and 5:00 p. m. Sundays. The matinees are on Wednesdays during March only.

There will be two added performances during Holy Week, one on March 20 and the other on March 24 (Good Friday).

Mrs. Jess Elliott has returned to her home from Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Simonson-Lair Circle In Meeting

The Simonson-Lair Circle of the Pahokee First Methodist Church Woman's Society of Christian Service met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arch Blakely with ten members and two visitors, Mrs. Helen Schroder and Mrs. Nellie Naylor, present at the meeting.

The circle will be in charge of flowers for the church during the month of April and each Sunday was assigned. New officers for the coming year were discussed. It was also announced that shut-ins would be remembered at Easter time.

Mrs. Arch Blakely gave the program, "Impossible and Indispensable Message." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lula Barfield with Mrs. Frank Rozelle as co-hostess.

Shirley Circle Met On Monday

Mrs. J. L. Reeves was hostess to the Gertrude Shirley Circle of the Pahokee First Methodist Church WSCS on Monday night. Mrs. Ellis Murphy opened the meeting with prayer.

It was announced that the district meeting would be held on Thursday, May 18, at the Pahokee First Methodist Church. Mrs. R. B. Simonson, Mrs. Lloyd Hundley and Mrs. John Briley volunteered to assist at the meeting.

Mrs. George Ramey displayed the kitchen items that the circle has for sale as their service project.

Prior to the program, Mrs. Hundley gave a number of scriptures as devotionals to open the program. Mrs. I. M. Lair gave an interesting program, "What Easter Means To You."

The next meeting will be held Monday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Beulah Box.
